Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_26_0955

On 08/10/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

1. How many personnel (officers/staff) within your force have faced internal misconduct investigations into the use of AI to generate, alter or enhance evidence in each of the past five years? Please state as much detail as possible about each case, including whether the subject(s) of the investigation is a police officer or staff, as well as its current status or outcome.

2. How many personnel (officers/staff) within your force have faced criminal investigations into the use of AI to generate, alter or enhance evidence in each of the past five years? Please state as much detail as possible about each case, including whether the subject(s) of the investigation is a police officer or staff, as well as its current status or outcome

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds no relevant information.

In relation to your request, no information is held.

For clarity, no officers or staff have faced any misconduct action over the use of AI within the evidential chain.

We are committed to being an anti-discriminatory organisation. This means not only acting in a non-discriminatory way, but addressing systemic inequalities, disadvantage and discrimination.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:

Website - https://ico.org.uk/

Call their helpline - 0303 123 1113

Email - casework@ico.org.uk
