Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request 2023.0721

On 12/07/2023 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Please could you provide me with the following information, in Excel or similar spreadsheet form if possible:

- a) The number of car theft incidents reported to your force between 1 January 2023 and 30 June 2023;
- b) The number of those incidents where a police officer arrived at the scene of the incident.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

Police Forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the data. It should be noted that for these reasons the figures given relate to information from the specific recording system of Gloucestershire Constabulary and should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you receive.

Please note that our systems are designed to record information for policing purposes and the investigation of crime and not to extract statistical information. Accordingly whilst we endeavour to extract relevant data within the time limits of the Act, any data supplied is subject to these limitations.

I can confirm that a search of Gloucestershire Constabulary's Incident Recording System has been conducted to identify all records created between 01/01/2023 and 30/06/2023 and where the result code of "Theft of motor vehicle" has been applied. A filter has then been applied to identify the number of those where a resource attended. Please see the table below for the results:

Theft of motor vehicle records	327
Resource attended	55

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
