Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request 2023.0728

On 17/07/2023 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Please provide the following for between 2016 up to the latest data available, broken down by calendar year and financial year (if only one of these is available, please provide this only):

- The number of applications submitted by your force for judicial reviews on a gross misconduct verdict presided over by a Legally Qualified Chair
- The cost of these judicial review to the force
- The case number for each application
- The original outcome of the verdict of the gross misconduct hearing you sought to have reviewed
- The outcome of the judicial review

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds no relevant information.

I can confirm that from 2016 to date, the Chief Constable of Gloucestershire Constabulary has not made any applications for a judicial review on a gross misconduct decision made by a Legally Qualified Chair. For the sake of clarity, our response to the remainder of the questions is nil.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
