Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request 2023.

On 30/11/2023 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Please answer the following questions for the time period between 1 Jan 2023 and 31 Oct 2023:

1) Please can you provide me with the names of all the countries that officers from your force were deployed to, to either assist or train local law enforcement or as a response to requests from foreign governments/police forces after a major incident such as a terror attack (please specify), along with the number of officers that were deployed to each country? Please can you tell me the total cost of each deployment (with the breakdown of the costs incurred).

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds no relevant information.

The International Police Response Cadre for Gloucestershire have not deployed anyone overseas in relation to the above.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
