Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_24_0046

On 11/01/2024 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Could I please have information relating to how many individuals received prostitutes' cautions* from Gloucestershire Constabulary each year since 2009? I would like to request:

the total number of prostitutes' cautions made each year.

the total number of individuals that received a prostitutes' caution each year.

where an individual has received multiple prostitutes' cautions since 2009, could you please detail the number of cautions they have received, and the years in which they were made.

*This relates to cautions made under Section 16 of the Policing and Crime Act 2009 for persistent loitering or soliciting in a street or public place for the purposes of offering services as a prostitute (CPS guidance here –

Prostitution and Exploitation of Prostitution | The Crown Prosecution Service \(cps.gov.uk\)

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds no relevant information.

A search of Gloucestershire Constabulary systems has been carried out to identify the number of prostitutes cautions that have been issued since 2009. I can confirm that this search return zero (0) results.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.
