Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_24_0195

On 13/02/2024 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

- 1) What is the total number of incidents of anti-social behaviour reported to your police force in each of the following calendar years: 2023, 2022 and 2021?
- 2) Out of the total number reported, how many reports resulted in a police officer attending the scene in each of the following calendar years: 2023, 2022 and 2021.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

Police Forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the data. It should be noted that for these reasons the figures given relate to information from the specific recording system of Gloucestershire Constabulary and should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you receive.

Please note that our systems are designed to record information for policing purposes and the investigation of crime and not to extract statistical information. Accordingly whilst we endeavour to extract relevant data within the time limits of the Act, any data supplied is subject to these limitations.

A search was completed to identify substantiated incidents, between 01/01/2021 – 31/12/2023, where the closure code was either ASB Personal, ASB Environmental or ASB Nuisance. This was then broken down by year and a filter was then applied to identify all incidents where an officer has attended please see the below table for a breakdown.

| Year | All anti-social behaviour reports | Attended anti-social behaviour reports |
|------|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| 2021 | 23386                             | 8081                                   |
| 2022 | 9981                              | 3215                                   |
| 2023 | 10328                             | 3016                                   |

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.
