Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_24_0301

On 19/04/2024 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

- a) Does your force have a dedicated RASSO unit?
- b) At 11th March 2023, how many vacancies does your force have for specific RASSO officers (rape and serious sexual offences)?
- c) How many officers in your force are currently under investigation for criminal offences. Please break these down by offence type.

I write further to the Fol which I submitted this morning.

In question B), I did of course mean to ask for data for the 11th March 2024, rather than 11th March 2023.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary may hold some relevant information.

Unfortunately in order to provide you with the total number of officers within The Constabulary who are currently under investigation for criminal offences would require searching all employees records individually. This would also not include those under criminal investigations outside of The Force and would therefore not be an accurate figure. This would take longer than the 18 hours prescribed by the Freedom of Information Act.

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Gloucestershire Constabulary, when refusing to provide information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states the fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if not otherwise apparent) why the exemption applies.

In relation to your request Section 12 applies.

Section 12(1) – Fee Regulations states:

Section 1(1) of the Act does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit. (As detailed in the Data Protection and Freedom of Information Fees Regulations of 2004)

The appropriate limit at the moment is £450 calculated at an hourly rate of £25 per hour for all staff time incurred in:

- i. Determining whether information is held
- ii. Locating it
- iii. Retrieving it
- iv. Extracting the information to be disclosed from the other information.

In accordance with the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for your request.

By way of assistance and although excess cost removes the Force's obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, we have supplied the information relevant to your request which has already been retrieved. We trust this is helpful but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

- a) I can confirm that The Constabulary does have a dedicated RASSO team.
- b) I can confirm that The Constabulary currently has two vacancies

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
