Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_24_0326

On 18/03/2024 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

The IC has issued Kent Police with a reprimand over the uploading of personal information onto the social media app Telegram. The reprimand includes:

'At the time of the ICO's investigation it was stated that there were a total of 241 Group members, with Kent Police making up almost 10% of the membership.'

<https://ico.org.uk/media/action-weve-taken/reprimands/4028824/20240305-kent-police-reprimand.pdf>

1. Please provide information on the number of officers from your force who were members of the Telegram group.
2. Please provide details of any disciplinary action you have taken against these officers.
3. Please provide the number of individuals who had their personal information uploaded onto Telegram by officers from your force.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds no relevant information.

I can confirm that the Constabulary has no recorded information to suggest that any officers were members of the Telegram Group.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
