Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_24_0343

On 25/03/2024 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Please can you provide the following information - the number of Families that you have supported since April 2019 to 15th March 2023, where a family member has been a Victim of Murder or Manslaughter abroad.

In relation to any Families supported, please can you advise whether they have been appointed a SIO (Senior Investigating Office) or Family Liaison Officer.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary may hold some relevant information.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Gloucestershire Constabulary, when refusing to provide information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states the fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if not otherwise apparent) why the exemption applies.

The following exemptions apply:

Section 21 – Information reasonably accessible by other means

The above exemption is absolute and class-based and therefore no Public Interest Test or Harm Test is required.

The information that you have requested is already reasonably accessible to you by other means and is therefore exempt by virtue of Section 21 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Gloucestershire Constabulary are required to make certain information available to the public as part of a publication scheme.

The information requested is available in the public domain via the following address:

foi_23_0861_support-for-families-of-murder-victims-abroad.pdf \(gloucestershire.police.uk\)

I note that the previous request was open ended with regards to date range. As the previous request was answered in September 2023 the date range of this request is fully covered within the previous request.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
