Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_24_1139

On 19.12.24 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

The cost, defined as the extra amount of money that you will have to pay over the next financial year, that your territorial police force will incur as a result of the increase in employers National Insurance Contributions as of the Autumn Budget 2024

The cost, defined as the extra amount of money that you will have to pay over the next financial year, that your territorial police force will incur as a result of the increase in a) National Minimum Wage and b) National Living Wage as of the Autumn Budget 2024.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

In line with our current pay structure the increase will come at no cost to Gloucestershire Constabulary.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
