Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_25_1049

On 31/10/2025 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

- 1) How many Stalking Protection Orders have been enforced by the constabulary between October 2022 and October 2025.
- 2) How many perpetrators have been issued with a full, or interim Stalking Protection Order or both, between October 2022 and October 2025 where the victim for each order has been a different person.
- 3) How many perpetrators have been issued with a full or interim Stalking Protection Order or both, between October 2022 and October 2025, where the victim for each order has been a different person and not related to the perpetrator.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary may hold some relevant information.

Following your request we have received the following information from our specialist department.

- Q1) 57
Q2) 43 Interim 14 Full
Q3) No information held

Gloucester constabulary do not record details of the relationships between victim and perpetrator regarding Stalking protection orders. This information is not recorded

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.
