Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_25_1090

On 10/11/2025 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Please provide the number of recorded offences between 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2024 that meet both of the following conditions:

1. It was recorded under Section 61 the Sexual Offences Act 2003 ("administering a substance with intent to stupefy or overpower")
2. The incident is flagged as Domestic Abuse, Intimate Partner Violence, or otherwise recorded as occurring within a domestic setting.

NOTE: If this exceeds the cost limit, please prioritise reports for 2023–2024 only.

I would be grateful if the data could be supplied in an excel format.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

Police Forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide statistics to government bodies, and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the data. It should be noted that for these reasons the figures given relate to information from the specific recording system of Gloucestershire Constabulary and should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you receive.

Please note that our systems are designed to record information for policing purposes and the investigation of crime and not to extract statistical information. Accordingly, whilst we endeavour to extract relevant data within the time limits of the Act, any data supplied is subject to these limitations.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted of the Constabulary's crime recording system for all substantiated crimes between 01/01/2022 and 31/12/2024 with the following offence: administering a substance with intent. The data was filtered to look for any domestic abuse tags, and, where it was recorded, the locations of "house", "flat" or "dwelling". The information in response to your questions is set out below:

1. 16 crimes recorded
2. 0 crimes recorded with a Domestic Abuse tag.
1 crime recorded with a location marked as "dwelling/house"

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
