Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_26_0246

On 04/03/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would like to request the following information under the freedom of information Act 2000:

1. How many recorded offences of sexual assault has there been on a male by a Gloucestershire police officer from September 30th, 2025, to December 30th, 2025?

2. How many recorded offences of sexual assault has there been on a female by a Gloucestershire police officer from September 30th, 2025, to December 30th, 2025?

3. Please can you provide the outcome for each of these recorded offences, specifically making each outcome distinctly clear for male and female victims.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary may hold some relevant information.

Unfortunately, the Constabulary is unable to identify the occupation of an offender from electronic searches of the crime records as the crime record is independent of the occupation field, which appears on the individual files. Occupation is a non-mandatory free text field and may be updated each time an individual comes into contact with the police. Electronic searches could only extract the occupation recorded on the system at the time the search is made if the field has been completed. For example, an offender may have come into contact with the police in 2019 when their occupation was recorded and then again in 2022 when the occupation field was updated. The occupation then showing on the system would not be correct for the 2022 crime. Equally an offender's occupation may not be recorded at all on initial contact but recorded at a later stage following subsequent contact with the police. It would be incorrect to link the occupation showing on the system to the earlier crime. The only way of trying to determine whether any information is held relating to the occupation of police officer and to retrieve any relevant information would be to undertake a manual review of all crime records and the individual records of the offenders of those crimes. This would take more than the 18 hours prescribed by the Freedom of Information Act.

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Gloucestershire Constabulary, when refusing to provide information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states the fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if not otherwise apparent) why the exemption applies.

In relation to your request Section 12 applies.

Section 12(1) – Fee Regulations states:

Section 1(1) of the Act does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit. (As detailed in the Data Protection and Freedom of Information Fees Regulations of 2004)

The appropriate limit at the moment is £450 calculated at an hourly rate of £25 per hour for all staff time incurred in:

- i. Determining whether information is held
- ii. Locating it
- iii. Retrieving it
- iv. Extracting the information to be disclosed from the other information.

In accordance with the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.
