Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request 26_0366

On 10/04/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

I was wondering if its would be possible for you to provide me with the number of and names of the officers in the Gloucestershire constabulary that are the rank of Inspector to Chief Superintendent

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

Following receipt of your request, Gloucestershire Constabulary's website was checked to establish if the information you requested was publicly available. After accessing the Constabulary's main website, you can scroll down and search by area. The Constabulary commonly uses local policing areas:

- Gloucester
- Stroud
- Cheltenham
- Forest of Dean
- Tewkesbury
- Cotswolds

Once you have searched for the area you are interested in, you can click "On the Team" for names and profiles.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Gloucestershire Constabulary, when refusing to provide information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states the fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if not otherwise apparent) why the exemption applies.

With regard to the disclosure of any further names of officers the following exemption applies:

Section 40(2) Personal Information

Section 40(2) applies to third party personal data. This would not be released under the Freedom of Information Act unless there is a strong public interest. The disclosure of any information which could lead to the identification of an individual would breach the Data Protection Principles contained within the Data Protection Act 2018, namely the first principle which states that personal data shall be processed lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner in relation to individuals

This exemption is absolute and class based therefore I am not required to apply either the public interest test or harm test in disclosure.

In accordance with the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for this part of your request.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
