Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_26_0442

On 06/05/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

I would like to request the following information for the most recent 5 financial years available:

1. The number of incidents recorded with a domestic abuse flag that involve explosive devices, including grenades.
2. A yearly breakdown of these incidents.
3. Where available, the recorded outcome (e.g. arrest, charge, no further action).

If "grenade" is not a searchable category within your systems, please include any incidents identified through keywords (e.g. "grenade") or broader classifications such as explosive devices.

If it is not possible to provide all of the above, please provide the closest available data within cost limits.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

Following receipt of your request, initial searches were conducted of the Constabulary's incident recording system for incidents with a DA flag from 01/04/2021 – 31/03/2026. 21,133 records were returned. Unfortunately, there is no way to filter the information retrieved any further. We would be required to manually review each record to determine any relevance to your request. This would involve the review of thousands of records and would therefore take far longer than the 18 hours prescribed by the Freedom of Information Act.

Please see below for suggestions on how you may be able to refine your request to come within the cost constraints of Section 12 of the Act.

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Gloucestershire Constabulary, when refusing to provide information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states the fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if not otherwise apparent) why the exemption applies.

In relation to your request Section 12 applies.

Section 12(1) – Fee Regulations states:

Section 1(1) of the Act does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit. (As detailed in the Data Protection and Freedom of Information Fees Regulations of 2004)

The appropriate limit at the moment is £450 calculated at an hourly rate of £25 per hour for all staff time incurred in:

- i. Determining whether information is held
- ii. Locating it
- iii. Retrieving it
- iv. Extracting the information to be disclosed from the other information.

In accordance with the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for your request.

Section 16 – duty to assist

Unfortunately, I'm unable to assist in suggesting ways of refining your request to come within the confines of Section 12 of the Act. Even reducing the timescale would not reduce the number of records enough that a manual review could be conducted within the timescale but still provide meaningful information.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
