Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_26_0471

On 15/05/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

1. What number and proportion of all collisions in each of the last five years had a driver/rider recorded as having a non-GB licence.
2. What number and proportion of all personal injury collisions in each of the last five years had a driver/rider recorded as having a non-GB licence.

I would like to narrow the terms of reference in order to fit the cost limit. Please could you provide information on:

The number and proportion of all collisions where the driver/rider is recorded as having a non-GB licence, for as long a period as you can fit in the cost limit.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary may hold some relevant information. Following receipt of your request, I can confirm that searches were undertaken within Gloucestershire Constabulary in order to identify and locate the relevant information.

Unfortunately, there is no central register for the requested information and no way to retrieve the information by way of direct electronic searches. The Constabulary systems do not have a feature to directly search for non-UK driving licences. Therefore, a manual review of each recorded road traffic incident where a driving licence may be recorded would have to be undertaken. In order to retrieve the requested information, it would take far longer than the 18 hours prescribed by the Freedom of Information Act.

Section 17(5) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Gloucestershire Constabulary, when refusing to provide information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states the fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if not otherwise apparent) why the exemption applies.

In relation to your request Section 12 applies.

Section 12(1) – Fee Regulations states:

Section 1(1) of the Act does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit. (As detailed in the Data Protection and Freedom of Information Fees Regulations of 2004)

The appropriate limit at the moment is £450 calculated at an hourly rate of £25 per hour for all staff time incurred in:

- i. Determining whether information is held
- ii. Locating it
- iii. Retrieving it
- iv. Extracting the information to be disclosed from the other information.

In accordance with the Act, this letter represents a Refusal Notice for your request.

Section 16 – Advice and Assistance

Unfortunately, I'm unable to assist in suggesting ways of refining your request to come within the confines of Section 12 of the Act. Even defining a timescale would not reduce the number of records enough that a manual review could be conducted within the timescale but still provide meaningful information due to the information not being within an directly retrievable format.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.
