Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_ 26_0651

On 08/07/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

1. How many unique incidents were recorded on your command and control system under the term "Anti-Social Behaviour"? For each of the following years, please state the number of unique incidents.

- a. 2025 (1 January–31 December 2025)
- b. 2026 (1 January 2026 to the date this request is processed)

2. Of the incidents identified in Question 1, how many have a recorded log entry showing that a police officer or PCSO was dispatched to, and arrived at, the scene (i.e. physical attendance)? For each of the following years, please state the number of unique incidents.

- a. 2025 (1 January–31 December 2025)
- b. 2026 (1 January 2026 to the date this request is processed)

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

Police Forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the data. It should be noted that for these reasons the figures given relate to information from the specific recording system of Gloucestershire Constabulary and should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you receive.

Please note that our systems are designed to record information for policing purposes and the investigation of crime and not to extract statistical information. Accordingly whilst we endeavour to extract relevant data within the time limits of the Act, any data supplied is subject to these limitations.

A search was conducted for all incidents within the time ranges specified that had been marked with an "ASB" marker. This was then filtered for attendance. Below are the results of the search:

Date Range	Incidents	Attendance
01/01/2025 – 31/12/2025	13,058	3300
01/01/2026 – 13/07/2026	7,332	1,734

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
