Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_26_0654

On 10/07/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

- 1) The estimated number of police hours in your police force saved due to the changes to the Home Office Counting Rules that were implemented in May 2023.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds no relevant information.

No information held. The Constabulary adheres to the Home Office Counting Rules for Recorded Crime in place at the time of operation but does not hold any quantifiable data in relation to costs incurred specifically in relation to changes to the Counting Rules.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:

Website - <https://ico.org.uk/>

Call their helpline - 0303 123 1113

Email - casework@ico.org.uk

Post – Information Commissioner's Office
