Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_26_0689

On 20/07/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

How many officers are working in 999 response, investigations, HR and professional standards teams as at 31 March 2024 and 31 March 2026?

You can provide the response in the following format:

	March 2024	March 2026
999 response
Investigations
HR
Professional standards

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

Following receipt of your request, an electronic search of the Constabulary's HR records (headcount data) was conducted and the information retrieved for the number of police officers working in 999 response, investigations, HR and professional standards are as follows:

	March 2024	March 2026
999 response	272	313
Investigations	256	343
HR	0	0

Professional standards	14	19
------------------------	----	----

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
