Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_ 26_0733

On 31/07/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

Please could you tell me under the FOI Act 2000:

In the years 2020/21, 2021/22, 2022/23, 2023/24, 2024/25 and 2025/26 (please give separate totals for each year):

- a) The number of criminal investigations opened in this period by your police force into individuals on suspicion of manslaughter where the suspected victim of that individual had committed suicide
- b) Of these investigations, the number where the individual in question had a romantic relationship with the victim at any point
- c) Of the investigations given in answer (a), the number where the individual had a history of domestic abuse that was already known to police by the time of the suicide

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds no relevant information.

Police Forces in the United Kingdom are routinely required to provide statistics to government bodies and the recording criteria is set nationally. However, the systems used for recording these figures are not generic, nor are the procedures used locally in capturing the data. It should be noted that for these reasons the figures given relate to information from the specific recording system of Gloucestershire Constabulary and should not be used for comparison purposes with any other response you receive.

Please note that our systems are designed to record information for policing purposes and the investigation of crime and not to extract statistical information. Accordingly whilst we endeavour to extract relevant data within the time limits of the Act, any data supplied is subject to these limitations.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.
