Dear

Gloucestershire Constabulary Freedom of Information request FOI_26_1056

On 06/11/2026 you sent an email constituting a request under the Freedom of Information Act asking the following:

I am making a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.
The purpose is to find out the statistics of noise complaints made by residents on New Year's Eve and on other days of the year.

Required information:

Please provide the following information from December 2020 to October 2026:
New Year's Eve noise complaints: The total number of noise complaints made by residents from 18:00 on 31 December to 06:00 on January 1st in each year from 2020 to 2026 New Year's Eve noise complaints by hour: The total number of noise complaints made by residents from 18:00 on 31 December till 06:00 on January 1st in each year from 2020 to 2026, broken down by hour New Year's Eve noise complaint reasons: The reasons for complaints made in item 1, broken down by year, using your own categories, including, where applicable, people-related noise, barking dogs, music and fireworks.
Total noise complaints: The number of noise complaints made by residents in each calendar year from 2020 to October 2026, broken down by year and month.
I confirm that I am not seeking any personal or identifying information. Figures under five may be suppressed or rounded.

We are committed to being an anti-discriminatory organisation. This means not only acting in a non-discriminatory way, but addressing systemic inequalities, disadvantage and discrimination.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 s1, I can confirm that Gloucestershire Constabulary holds some relevant information.

In relation to your request, searchers were conducted by the relevant business area on our Incident Management System (IMS) and for the requested dates and time period nil results were returned.

No information held.

If you are not satisfied with this response or any actions taken in dealing with your request, you have the right to ask that we review your case under our internal procedure. Please note that a request for an internal review must be made within 20 working days of the response to your original request.

If you decide to request that such a review is undertaken and following this process you are still unsatisfied, you then have the right to direct your complaint to the Information Commissioner for consideration.

The Information Commissioner can be contacted via the following means:
